

Code of Conduct for University of the Arts London students staying in Connaught Hall, University of London

No smoking in the building or balconies

Quiet rule between 11pm and 7am – no parties in rooms after 11pm

Consideration of other residents

Leave the bathroom facilities in the way that you would like to find them

Guests are responsible for their own welfare and the University of London cannot accept any responsibility for your welfare including, for example, your conduct in London or enforcing a curfew